ACCESS INNOVATION IMPACT

ABOUT UCF ONLINE

Leveraging the university's 25 years of experience in digital learning and teaching, UCF Online offers prospective undergraduate and graduate students a flexible pathway for online education. We are committed to supporting and assisting fully online students from application to graduation, no matter where they reside. UCF Online also provides support, assistance and guidance for the faculty and staff who work with fully online students throughout UCF's extended community.

“Our innovative online programs are built on UCF's extensive experience in digital learning and provide students the opportunity to access affordable, high-quality degrees no matter where they're located.”

THOMAS CAVANAGH, PH.D., Vice Provost for Digital Learning

For the fourth consecutive year, UCF was ranked as a top 20 best Online Bachelor's Program and a top 20 best Online Colleges for Veterans program in the nation. UCF is also ranked as one of the most innovative universities according to U.S. News & World Report.

OUR MISSION

UCF Online believes that everyone deserves the opportunity to unleash their full potential and improve lives and their communities through a college degree. This is accomplished by providing access to a high-quality education and supporting students without limitations based on location.

“As a success coach, I enjoy partnering with my students along their academic journey as an extra layer of support to them and their respective program departments. Though we may not be the experts on everything, nor do we have all the answers - we'll ensure students are connected to the right person, department, or service that best meets their needs while maintaining a collaborative student-coach relationship.”

MONIQUE CARTER, Team Lead & Success Coach
